Pope Francis: "What world will we leave our children?"

Pope Francis has sent a video message to launch the new Laudato si' Action Platform, bringing the Laudato si' Year to a close but continuing the battle to protect our common home.

"The current pandemic has now brought to light in an even stronger way the cry of nature and that of the poor who suffer most the consequences, highlighting that everything is interconnected and interdependent and that our health is not separated from the health of the environment in which we live." It is for this reason that we need "a new ecological approach," says Pope Francis. In this way we can "transform our way of dwelling in the world, our styles of life, our relationship with the resources of the Earth and, in general, our way of looking at humanity and of living life."

"We have a great responsibility," says the Pope, "especially with regard to the future generations. What world do we want to leave to our children and our young? Our selfishness, our indifference and our irresponsible ways are threatening the future of our children!" he warns. "From God's hands we have received a garden, we cannot leave a desert to our children."

The Laudato si' Action Platform is "a seven-year journey that will see our communities committed in different ways to becoming totally sustainable." Let's "embark on this journey together," as "only in this way will we be able to create a more inclusive, fraternal, peaceful and sustainable world."

Meaning of the symbol of The Sacred Heart

June is the month of The Sacred Heart of Jesus: Read Cardinal Collins pastoral letter on how to make a devotion to The Sacred Heart.

- The heart, the sign for love - the steady, reliable, faithful, life-giving love which we experience in Jesus.
- The heart is wounded, indicating the wounds Jesus suffered for our salvation.
- Encircled by a crown of thorns symbolizing persecution.
- Surmounted by a cross, depicting Jesus sacrificial death by giving up his life for us on the cross.
- Surrounded by flames representing His glorious love.
- Jesus points to the Sacred Heart and His arms reach outward welcoming us into His infinite love.

Prayer to The Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father,
Who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son,
Who by His Precious Blood
delivered me from hell, and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,
Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces
I receive daily from His bounty.

Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity,
now and forever. Amen.
